NATASHA ZWAGA SACRED SPACES

ABOUT ME

Hello!!

Welcome, my name is Natasha Zwaga, founder & creator of Sacred Spaces, specializing in event and wedding planning, creating unique, unforgettable memories & celebrations in stunning settings across the Mediterranean & beyond.

My own journey and life experiences so far make me who I am today. Having been born on the South Coast of England to parents of dutch father and English mother. By the age of six years having lived in England and Doha we moved to the Costa Blanca Spain, where I attended Spanish school, college and university where I achieved a degree in business studies, therefore, bilingual in English and Spanish with a good understanding of different cultures..

At the age of 24 I decided to live in London gaining more knowledge and experience for my personal and professional growth, thus being fortunate to work for many big companies I.e;

Nike, Harrod's, sky, O2 Arena, Olympics and besides Emirates Arsenal and Tottenham Football clubs as an event manager - Coordinator among other duties.

Through these experiences my passion motivated me to reach my full potential in giving exceptional, personal customer service. Since returning to Spain, I have worked in many events & weddings at the most popular venues on the Costa Blanca. My consistency of commitment and investment in myself both professionally and personally gives me the opportunity and pleasure of welcoming you to Sacred Spaces.
